Boat Description

Queen of Datca is one of the most luxurious gulets in Croatia, Queen of Datca, amazes with her appearance and high-end finishes. The gulet is 35 meters long, which guarantees lot of space for indoor and outdoor living. All the cabins are air conditioned and have en-suite toilet. The use of air conditioning is unlimited. Both Master cabins are very beautiful, spacious, have king size bed, powder table, Satellite TV, lot of storage and very nice en-suite bathroom. VIP cabin has queen size bed, lot of storage and nice en-suite bathroom. There are 2 twin cabins, which are exactly the same and both have en-suite bathroom. All the bathrooms are fully equipped.

Gulet Queen of Datca has very classy indoor salon. This area is very big, with lot of day light, due to large windows all around. There is a dining table with huge, black leather sofa and chairs. On the other corner, there are 2 comfortable armchairs as well as the yacht bar.

Salon is equipped with Satellite TV/DVD, Docking station, air conditioning, little library, board games.

The most inviting area on the yacht is the deck. On the stern deck, there is additional dining table with chairs and comfortable, cushioned sofa that stretches throughout the whole beam.

On the bow deck, there are 10 sun bathing mattresses.

The gulet has excellent sailing performances and the crew will raise up the sails whenever conditions allow. Six crew members are at guests' disposal at all times: captain, chef, engineer, deckhand, hostess, housekeeper. They are all fluent in English and offer high level service.

Gulet Queen of Datca sails in Montenegro and Croatia, providing nice variety of itineraries.
