Crew

Captain Mirko has been sailing the Adriatic for more than 15 years. For the last 5 years he has been on 100-ft+ luxury yachts but he has chosen to Captain Sinbadsan because his passion lies in sailing. There is nothing he loves more than to hoist the sails, follow the wind and find new, stunning locations for guests to explore. Thanks to Sinbadsan's size, she can fit almost anywhere, giving more possibilities of finding small, hidden bays. And, for the adventurous, some of Mirko's favourite destinations are islands like Sušac - one of the furthest islands, almost uninhabited save for a 20th century lighthouse; sailing to Sušac and enjoying nature is an indescribable experience and not something many yachts or gulets will do.

Tash (hostess/cook) has been working in hospitality and tourism for more than a decade, originally from New Zealand, she now calls Croatia home with her husband Mirko. After working in luxury restaurants and yachts, Tash is excited to move to a sailing yacht - why? Because the kind of guests who choose to go sailing are generally more interested in their surroundings, keen to sail and also explore. Whether guests want to do a standard itinerary to see all the highlights of Dalmatia, Tash has recommendations for every island. Or, if guests are more adventurous, Tash is also very passionate about outdoor adventure and loves sharing this with guests - whether organising bikes, freediving, canoeing or even just anchoring in a secluded bay to enjoy water sports or go ashore to hike and explore. These are the moments and experiences that can't be paid for.

Mirko and Tash's philosophy is "SEA it different", they have taken over Sinbadsan because they wish to truly show guests the best Croatia has to offer - more than just the sun and the sea, they believe there is so much that many visitors are missing and Sinbadsan is the perfect vessel to make this happen.
